

Renewed Covenant Psalms 111:7-10

Vs.4- this idea that the God of the old testament is a brutal, murdering, God; and the God of the new testament is not brutal or murdering, but only loving. This idea is unscriptural and here we have evidence that the God of the old testament is full of grace and compassion.

Vs.5 & 9 – He will remember his covenant forever, and he has ordained or commanded his covenant forever!

Many theologians and teachers present the idea that there was an old covenant for Israel and a new covenant for the church. This is also an unscriptural idea!

I think the word new would be better rendered as renewed. In other words it is not a New Covenant, but rather it is a Renewed Covenant. And the covenant is still with Israel. This replacement theology of the church replacing Israel is also unscriptural. We are either grafted into Israel by faith through Yeshua and have salvation, or we are not on the path of salvation.

Rom.11:1,2, 11, 17-23 So clearly Yahweh is not done with Israel and if venture on this journey of salvation then we are being grafted into Israel. The so called church will replace nobody. And there is only a small remnant of Gentiles grafted into Israel who actually keep Torah and believe that Yeshua is the Messiah.

Gal.3:15-17 let me show you a truth about the covenant of Yahweh. A new covenant doesn't void the old covenant.

Pauls example is this: The covenant God made with Abraham would be considered the old covenant and the covenant God made with Moses about the law at Mt. Sinai came 430 years later than the covenant made with Abraham so this would be the new covenant. If a new covenant annuls the old covenant then the very covenant Christians think they are clinging to with Abraham is done away with.

The point is simple- no new covenant nullifies an old covenant!

God made a covenant with Noah before all the afore mentioned covenants! Is Gods rainbow in the sky still his promise, his covenant that he won't destroy the whole earth with a flood again? Or is that covenant no longer valid? When God sets something in place- it is forever!

Luke 22:20 When ever God does a covenant it is always done in blood. New Covenant-

New= 2537 kainos= that which is unaccustomed or unused, not new in time, but new as to the form of quality or freshness.

New in reference to quality or freshness, not new in time or appearing for the first time
So this word we use for new covenant is actually not something new at all, but rather something renewed.

Jer.31:31 New= 2319 chadash= this word actually has double meaning- it can be new as in never existed before or it can be renewed as in fresh.

The root word is chadash 2318 and the root word is to new; cause to rebuild; renew, repair and it means to renew. Vines says these words 2318 and 2319 are synonyms.

Jeff Benners Ancient Hebrew Dictionary says it is translated as new but defines it as Something that is New, Renewed, Restored, Repaired

Now knowing that a new covenant doesn't nullify an old covenant, and looking at the definitions of these words- I have to conclude that what theologians refer to as the New Covenant is actually a Renewed Covenant. A fresh covenant, that already existed previously.

Ps.111:7,8 Yahwehs commandments standfast, are sustained, holden up, stay, established forever!

Vs.9- he sends redemption, but that doesn't nullify his previous covenant, it says His covenant he has commanded or ordained forever!

Covenant= 1285 ber-eeth= an agreement be 2 parties; league, confederacy, compact (because made by passing between 2 pieces of flesh). When the Father makes a covenant there seems to always be the sealing of the covenant in blood!

I found it interesting that synonyms of this word covenant are word, statute, precepts, testimony, torah, law. So when we see that Yahweh has commanded his covenant forever we can understand that that applies to his word, his torah, his testimony, his precepts, his law- they are all one and the same! When the Father speaks something into existence it is forever!

Vs.10- a good understanding have all they that do His commandments!

Wisdom= Keeping and Doing Torah! **

Deuteronomy 4:6 "So keep and do them (Torah), for that is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples who will hear all these statutes and say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.'" So obviously the scriptures tells us that wisdom is keeping and doing Torah!

Jeremiah 8:9 "...Behold, they have rejected the word (Torah) of the Yahweh, and what kind of wisdom do they have?" So if you reject Torah you do not have wisdom.
